HIRAM SMITH'S
Ophthalmic Panacea!
IS WITHOUT DOUBT THE MOST WONDERFUL EYE HEALER that has yet been discovered.
IT CURES the most stubborn and hopeless cases of CHRONIC INFLAMMATIONS, GRANULATED LIDS, FILMS, &c., as has been sufficiently demonstrated during the few months in which it has been brought into public notice. The proprietor is so fully convinced of its INFALLIBILITY that he WARRANTS A CURE OR REFUNDS THE MONEY. It can do the eyes no harm, and a trial of it is therefore without injury or expense to the patient if a cure is not effected.
It has cured cases of FIVE, SIX, NINE, FIFTEEN, and even EIGHTEEN YEARS' standing in Harrisburg, Linn county, Oregon, and its vicinity, to which the following persons will bear witness:
R. B. MOORE, NATHANIEL BELL,
A. L. WALLACE, G. R. WARD,
Mrs. MONTGOMERY, JOHN M HOLLOWAY,
W. D. PORTER, ROBT RAMSEY,
And others in that vicinity.
Persons afflicted with the distressing scourge of diseased eyes are advised to give this remedy a fair trial on the NO CURE, NO PAY and NO INJURY plan.
Prepared by SMITH & ROACH, Harrisburg, Oregon.
SMITH & DAVIS, Portland, Oregon, General Agents, to whom all orders should be addressed, and for sale by all Druggists. feb21dawtf

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO APRIL 5.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—In the Senate Trumbull, from Judiciary Committee, reported without amendments, a bill prescribing the oath of office to be taken by persons who participated in the rebellion, but are not disqualified under the Fourteenth Amendment.

Sumner introduced a bill preventing the Federal courts from enforcing contracts concerning slaves.

Chandler called up the bill authorizing the New York and Newfoundland Telegraph Company to land their cable on the U. S. coast, and moved an amendment extending the same provision to any company chartered by any State. Pending the consideration of the bill the morning hour expired, and the joint resolution to protect the interest of the United States in the Union Pacific Railroad, came up. The pending question was Sherman's amendment authorizing the President to fix the junction of the two roads, and if he deems it necessary, to appoint a board of eminent citizens, not exceeding five, to examine and report in regard to the proper point of junction; also in regard to the consolidation of each railroad.

Ward opposed the amendment and moved an amendment appointing Gens. Sheridan, Thomas, McDowell and T. J. Crane, a board with authority to establish the point of junction, which shall be on the line approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

Sherman said it was well known that the line fixed by the Secretary of the Interior was in dispute, and that a charge is now being investigated by the House of Representatives. It is now necessary that a point of junction be fixed by a competent authority.

The discussion was continued at length by Thayer, Howard, Trumbull, Cole and Stewart on points of controversy between the Central Pacific and Union Pacific railroads, as to where were the proper and legal termini of the two roads, and on the suit of Brooks vs. the Union Pacific Company in New York. The Senate then, without action, went into executive session and subsequently adjourned.

In the House, a large number of bills were introduced during the morning hour, including one providing for a full day's pay for eight hours' labor.

Shanks moved that the Judiciary Committee be instructed to investigate the charges against Judge Busteed. Adopted.

Several Senate bills and resolutions were referred. The following were passed. Bill to carry into effect the treaty with Mexico, and for the adjustment of claims.

Burdett presented the report of the Committee on Elections, declaring that as Wallace is entitled prima facie to the seat from the Fourth South Carolina District, he gave notice that he would call up the case to-morrow.

Randall presented a minority report.

A discussion arose on the bill extending the time for building the St. Croix and Lake Superior railroad. The bill was finally referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

A message was received from the President, transmitting the report of the Secretary of State as to the destruction of American merchant vessels by privateers during the war. It was referred to the Committee on Commerce.

A message was also received from the President announcing his signature to the tenure of office bill.

Burr offered a resolution directing an investigation of the election in the Third and Fourth Districts of South Carolina. Referred to the Committee on Elections.

The House then took a recess till the evening session for general debate.

At the evening session, Jencks addressed the House on the necessity of reform in the civil service and in favor of his bill to secure that end.

Orth advocated the admission of St. Domingo into the Union on the adoption of a Republican form of Territorial government. Adjourned.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Cresswell, by Sargent's request, asked the Senate to suspend action on the nomination of Chester, Postmaster at Placerville, with the view of its withdrawal. Sargent recommends Thos. French for Assessor at San Francisco, vice Gunn.

NEW YORK, April 5.—The Committee of Ways and Means to day resolved to promptly examine the Custom House warehouses and Revenue offices from Boston to San Francisco during the recess, preparatory to framing the tariff and revenue bills at the next session of Congress.

Among the nominations sent to day to the Senate were for Governor of Montana, B. F. Dennison, Chief Justice of Utah, Edward Evans (Elwood Evans?) Associate Justice of same, Frank Wolcott; Receiver of the Land Office for Wyoming, no name.

The following Registers of the Land Office were sent in: Louis Dugan, at Denver; S. B. Lyman, at Helena; H. Weller, at Santa Fe; Jacob P. Clark, at Olympia, and Wm. J. Berry, at Prescott, Arizona. Surveyor Generals, Rush Spencer, New Mexico; Wm. H. Beadle, Dakota; Henry H. Washburn, Montana; Col. C. D. Kuger, Wyoming.

The President to-day signed the tenure-of-office bill. The Supreme Court will adjourn April 10th till October. No arguments will be heard after Friday.

The Senate this afternoon confirmed nearly two hundred nominations, including nearly all the Postmasters sent in heretofore, beside Registers and Receivers of Land Offices.

The Railroad Quarrel

NEW YORK, April 5.—In the case of Fisk vs. the Union Pacific Railroad, an affidavit was filed in the Supreme Court to-day by Oakes Ames, a stockholder, and S. C. Durant, John B. Alley, Sidney Dillon and Cornelius Bushnell, directors, reciting that during the process of the work a contract for construction was made which was not binding unless afterwards approved by the stockholders, that Fisk afterwards purchased six shares of stock from a party who had assented to this contract, receiving a certificate for the same, endorsed in express satisfaction of all acts of which he now complains, and claiming, therefore, that he is stopped from making complaint; that Fisk has no other stock in the Company that his pretended subscription to the stock of the Company was invalid and made without any intention of becoming a bona fide stockholder; that, if valid, the stock belongs to parties employing him as a broker and lender; that he has since commenced suit as stated, not as a member of the Board of Directors, but as certain officers and directors of the Company refused to pay him $5,200 for services as counsel fees, &c., he has brought suit for damages and determined to make the Company pay him $7,500 or $10,000 to pay his claims. Deponents deny the allegations of Fisk and others as to fraudulent contract with the credit mobilier and explain these contracts as saving the, were just, equitable, and more favorable to the stockholders than could have been made with other parties. The credit mobilier has paid but two dividends of six per cent each. They claim that the total profit of the builders of the road will not exceed 15 per cent. on the disbursements.

Atley, one of the Directors, was examined before a referee, and testified that under the contract with the credit mobilier the Company was guaranteed its fulfillment, to advance money and receive seven or seven and a half per cent commission and interest upon the whole contract. This commission would amount to a million two hundred thousand dollars. The amount of the contract is about $47,000,000. The commission was never paid as the credit mobilier could not respond to a call made upon them.

MADRID, April 5.—A majority of the Cortes and Council of Ministers, are in favor of Ferdinand for King. A committee, including Olozaga, have gone to Lisbon to request his acceptance.

NEW YORK, April 5.—The Tribune's special says the Spanish Cortes has asked the Ministry for documents relative to goods said to have been imported for commerce by Minister Hale, under his diplomatic franchise.

The Tribune's Madrid special says La Politicen, Serrano's organ, declares it knows the fact of Minister Hale's smuggling, which it denounces as flagitious and insists on having the documents.

LONDON, April 5.—In the House of Commons a bill abolishing imprisonment for debt passed to its second reading.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—Crosswell, by Sargent's request, asked the Senate to suspend action on the nomination of Chester, Postmaster at Placerville, with the view of its withdrawal. Sargent recommends Thos. French for Assessor at San Francisco, vice Gunn.

NEW YORK, April 5.—The Committee of Ways and Means to day resolved to promptly examine the Custom House warehouses and Revenue offices from Boston to San Francisco during the recess, preparatory to framing the tariff and revenue bills at the next session of Congress.

Among the nominations sent to day to the Senate were for Governor of Montana, B. F. Dennison, Chief Justice of Utah, Edward Evans (Elwood Evans?) Associate Justice of same, Frank Wolcott; Receiver of the Land Office for Wyoming, no name.

The following Registers of the Land Office were sent in: Louis Dugan, at Denver; S. B. Lyman, at Helena; H. Weller, at Santa Fe; Jacob P. Clark, at Olympia, and Wm. J. Berry, at Prescott, Arizona. Surveyor Generals, Rush Spencer, New Mexico; Wm. H. Beadle, Dakota; Henry H. Washburn, Montana; Col. C. D. Kuger, Wyoming.

The President to-day signed the tenure-of-office bill. The Supreme Court will adjourn April 10th till October. No arguments will be heard after Friday.

The Senate this afternoon confirmed nearly two hundred nominations, including nearly all the Postmasters sent in heretofore, beside Registers and Receivers of Land Offices.

The Railroad Quarrel

NEW YORK, April 5.—In the case of Fisk vs. the Union Pacific Railroad, an affidavit was filed in the Supreme Court to-day by Oakes Ames, a stockholder, and S. C. Durant, John B. Alley, Sidney Dillon and Cornelius Bushnell, directors, reciting that during the process of the work a contract for construction was made which was not binding unless afterwards approved by the stockholders, that Fisk afterwards purchased six shares of stock from a party who had assented to this contract, receiving a certificate for the same, endorsed in express satisfaction of all acts of which he now complains, and claiming, therefore, that he is stopped from making complaint; that Fisk has no other stock in the Company that his pretended subscription to the stock of the Company was invalid and made without any intention of becoming a bona fide stockholder; that, if valid, the stock belongs to parties employing him as a broker and lender; that he has since commenced suit as stated, not as a member of the Board of Directors, but as certain officers and directors of the Company refused to pay him $5,200 for services as counsel fees, &c., he has brought suit for damages and determined to make the Company pay him $7,500 or $10,000 to pay his claims. Deponents deny the allegations of Fisk and others as to fraudulent contract with the credit mobilier and explain these contracts as saving the, were just, equitable, and more favorable to the stockholders than could have been made with other parties. The credit mobilier has paid but two dividends of six per cent each. They claim that the total profit of the builders of the road will not exceed 15 per cent. on the disbursements.

Atley, one of the Directors, was examined before a referee, and testified that under the contract with the credit mobilier the Company was guaranteed its fulfillment, to advance money and receive seven or seven and a half per cent commission and interest upon the whole contract. This commission would amount to a million two hundred thousand dollars. The amount of the contract is about $47,000,000. The commission was never paid as the credit mobilier could not respond to a call made upon them.

Political News

DETROIT, April 5.—A light vote was cast to-day. The Republicans elected Cooley for Justice of the Supreme Court, and McGowan and Easterbrook as Agents of the State University by probably a large majority. Also nearly all the Circuit Judges.

CINCINNATI, April 5.—At the election to-day for city officers, Torrence was elected Mayor and Lafitte Judge of the Superior Court, both Republicans. The Republicans elected the whole ticket except minor officers.

Stolen Bonds

PHILADELPHIA, April 5.—Over $800,000 of the bonds stolen from the Beneficial Savings Bank are registered Bonds, non convertible. Twenty-five thousand dollars reward is offered. The Committee have suspended payment to depositors for winding with unabated speed. A sudden chill ran through my blood, and set my flesh creeping. They had miscalculated the distance, and with the force they were winding the rope must inevitably break when the cradle came in contact with the block. There was no time to attempt a signal, only an instant to point out the danger to Ben, and then to get hold of the rope, and, by going hand over hand, reach the coping before the cradle came up. This was done almost quicker than I can tell it. Ben felt the wing.

The cradle came on then as I anticipated. the rope gave a shrill, singing sound like a rifle-ball passing through the air, and snapped. Down went the cradle and there we were left nearly three hundred feet in the air, with nothing to rest upon but a coping, barely eighteen inches wide.

Ben shrieked out that he was a dead man, and cried.

"Tell me where I can kneel, Harry; show me where I can pray to Almighty God, for I cannot die in this way!"

"Hush lad," I cried, "don't lose heart. God can hear you just as well sitting as kneeling, and if you try to get up you'll tumble, to a moral certainty. Think of Mary, man, and keep up."

But he only shook and swayed more and more, groaning and crying out that he was lost; and

The Daily Oregonian.

THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 8, 1869.

The Great "Reaction."

Is it any wonder that every laboring man in the country is leaving the bondholder's party and joining the party of the people?—Herald.

By the term "bondholder's party" the Herald means the Republicans, and by "the party of the people" it means the Democrats. The Republicans are in favor of honestly paying the national debt; but the Democrats are for repudiating from being "the party of the people" they are the party of repudiation, a minority faction which proposes a scheme of national dishonor, but which has not the power to carry its scheme into execution. It has not a fair majority of the people in one-fifth of the States of the Union, and it has no prospect of a more prosperous future.

We suggest to the Herald that recent events do not indicate that the laboring men of the country are making a general stampede from the Republican to the Democratic party. Look at the recent elections. The Republicans are everywhere triumphant, increasing their majorities over those obtained a year ago. Last year they carried New Hampshire by a negro majority. This year that majority is almost doubled. In the elections of 1867 and 1868 the Democrats carried Connecticut, electing all their State officers and three of the four members of Congress. The majority for English (Democrat) for Governor last year was 1,765; he is now beaten by nearly one thousand. Two years ago the Republicans elected but one Congressman in Connecticut—Starkweather in the Third District, whose majority was 1,896. He is now re-elected by 2,254 majority. Two years ago the Democratic majority in the First District was 517, and in the Second District 1,793. In these districts the Republican majorities are now, respectively, 764 and 273. The Fourth District re-elects a Democrat, but by a greatly reduced majority. Ex-Senator Dixon, a renegade Johnsonized Republican, by whose vote an ever infamous President was kept in office, is defeated for Congress in a District heretofore largely Democratic. The gods do not forget traitors! Every man who was associated with Andrew Johnson, is buried, politically, deeper than the doctrine of the Sadducees could send him!

The Republicans have also carried the judicial election in Michigan by a large majority. The municipal elections also result in their favor. In 1867 this Party carried Cincinnati, and gave the majority there also. The city now gets Republican. A Democratic defeat is a thing which is now never heard of. Under these circumstances the Democracy must feel very thankful to the Fifteenth Amendment for having given them that "great charge to take up" and that all the laboring men of the country are quitting the Republican party and flying to the Democratic party at the rate of notice.

[illegible] of this Congress, as [illegible] 24, the Republicans [illegible] trying to force it on the country without submitting it to the people, as if afraid to risk a popular vote. Now we would inquire if New York and Connecticut might not as well be [illegible] from the number of States necessary [illegible] this amendment is to be "forced" against the will of the people? Last year the Republicans, in the Connecticut Legislature, on joint ballot were 23. This year it is [illegible] and let it be remembered that this Legislature was chosen expressly to ratify the amendment. The indications are strong that a majority of the people of the whole country are in favor of ratifying the amendment, and that three-fourths of the States will ratify, within a year from this date. The Salem Mail of the 2d inst. stated that "the vote [illegible] was on the proposed amendment." That paper can consider the matter at its leisure and inform the Oregon Democracy just how much the prospect of defeating the amendment is worth, and just what amount of capital they can profitably afford to [illegible] by continuing their opposition to the [illegible].

Washington Territory.

The Republicans in Washington Territory are arranging for a big fight, which promises to be a hot one, but if it goes on its result may be general disappointment and disgust when the election returns come in. Politicians must not become over-anxious to secure those places to which they deem themselves entitled under the equities of political usage. Having done much service for his party, it is not unreasonable for a politician to feel a keen interest in seeing carried out toward him that justice to which he deems himself entitled. This often leads him to over-work his case. This may not be true of Mr. Garfielde. But some of the Republicans of Walla Walla appear to think that he has resorted to unfair means to secure delegates favorable to his claims in the Convention.

Until [illegible] Mr. Garfielde has done [illegible] service for the Republican party, and therefore he is entitled to the favorable consideration of the Convention. But it is universally understood among intelligent men who are ambitious of political preferment that whatever arrangements may be made and agreed upon among politicians, the final consent of the party must be obtained to give them any validity or force. This is a fundamental condition, and no person has any right to press a claim for preferment in disregard of it. We hope therefore that the aspirants for the nomination in Washington Territory will give the people a fair chance. Whether Flanders is still in the field we know not, but it would seem that he has decidedly less strength than Garfielde. The best way out of such a squabble as this often is to take up some third person upon whom all can unite, and with whom all may be reasonably satisfied.

Small Notes.

Wendell Phillips has written an article in which he declares that he approves the course of President Grant. It appears, then, that Grant is the only President we have ever had, "Radical" enough to please Phillips.

The time and place of holding the Republican Convention of Washington Territory are both changed. The Convention will be held at Vancouver instead of Claquato, and will assemble on the 21st instead of the 20th of the present month.

It seems certain that one result of the insurrection in Cuba will be the abolition of slavery in that island. Both the Government and the insurgents are arming the slaves. Unless the rebellion is soon quelled the blacks will be their own masters.

By our Washington letter it appears that it is William Kapus—not Kohl—who has been appointed Collector of Customs for Alaska. We are glad to make this correction. Kapus is well known here as man of integrity and indoubtedly will make a good officer. We thought it very strange that our Senators should recommend Kohl for the position, and thus advance an unworthy man and totally ignore the interests of Oregon besides.

The catastrophe which occurred yesterday at Gold Hill, Nevada, is the most terrible one which ever occurred on the Pacific slope. It is frightful beyond conception, and one shudders to read the account of it. The fire is probably the combustion of gases in the mines.

As Andrew Johnson passed through Lynchburg (Va.) in 1861 the rebel Democrats of that town tweaked his nose and squirted tobacco juice in his face. As he passed through the same place on his way to Tennessee, recently, the same people tendered him a public reception, a banquet, etc. and he had the spirit to accept the "honor!"

A Georgia correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial says that a noticeable separation of the whites and blacks is taking place throughout the South; the whites withdrawing from the neighborhood where the negroes preponderate, and the negroes thronging into communities where they are already in the majority. We suppose, however, that enough Democratic politicians will remain in the negro communities to court and manipulate the negro vote.

A delegation of Kentuckians visited the President on the 17th March, and stated that as Kentucky had no Republican representatives in either branch of Congress they felt it incumbent on them to request that none but thorough Republicans should be appointed to office in the State. He responded, saying: "I have instructed my Cabinet officers that in the borders States none but outspoken, reliable Republicans shall be appointed to office, and if any other kind obtain positions I will not hesitate to remove them."

The New York Herald says the spring trade of that city never started out with fairer promises. On the wharves and the sidewalks, which are blocked up with piles of boxes, the tokens of a brisk trade is plainly visible. The large cotton crop has given the Southern people a wider margin than they have had for many years for making purchases, while the general prosperity of the whole country has been stimulated by national confidence that President Grant's administration will prove beneficent and wise. Similar expressions are used by the press in other great trade centres.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.

WASHINGTON, March 20, 1869.

HOUSE COMMITTEE MATTERS.

Oregon is virtually unrepresented in the House Committees. Smith is at the foot of the Committee on Revolutionary Pensions, and next to the last man on the Postoffice Committee. The former Committee is obsolete, and the latter is of little or no importance to our people. As everything is done in the Committees, Oregon is practically unrepresented. This is another of the fruits of the insulting resolutions of the Copperhead Legislatures and their disgraceful conduct generally. Their folly is now coming home. They not only disgraced the State, but injured themselves and their own party friends.

THE OREGON CENTRAL RAILROAD.

The dispute between the Oregon Central Railroad Company, West Side, and the Oregon Central Railroad Company, East Side, has been going on here among the friends of the rival companies, all winter, and was once discussed in the Senate, and several times before Committee on Public Lands of both Houses. Messrs. Reed, Olney, Underwood and others for the West Side, and Messrs. Mitchell, Henderson, Elliott and Emmet, of the East Side, have frequently gone before the Committees to explain and advocate the claims of their respective companies. At a regular meeting of the Senate Committee on Public Lands, composed of Pomeroy, Williams, Tipton, Osborne, Warner, Sprague and Casserly, held last Wednesday, the Oregon Central Railroad was again considered, and the friends of the East Side and West Side had another hearing. Mr. Mitchell argued the case for the East Side, and Judge Olney advocated the claims of the West Side. Each gentleman made a clear and forcible argument, from his own stand point, in support of the claim of his company to the land grant.

THE OFFICE SEEKERS.

Washington City is overrun—literally crammed—with greedy, hungry, office seekers. All the hotels and many of the private boarding houses are thronged with them, and during the sessions of Congress they fill all the corridors and passages in the Capitol, and worry Senators and Members almost to death, waylaying them at every turn and constantly sending in cards and calling them out when in session. Hundreds are here from every Eastern State, and from some of the larger States thousands have poured into the Capital, all frantically besieging Senators and Members for office. Even Oregon—slightly populated and far away—has furnished quite a delegation of these enterprising gentlemen. No less than eight or ten of them are here—enough to fill every office in the State. In addition to this, scores of letters are received here from persons in Oregon, asking for office. One wants a particular office, another is willing to take anything that will pay his bread and butter, and a third thinks he is entitled to something, but don't know exactly what; and so it goes, to the end of the chapter, which is longer than the moral law. The number of office hunters from California is much greater than from Oregon. Indeed, the array of would be officials from that State is formidable, and they make it lively for Cole, Gorham and Sargent, on whose recommendations and influence they rely for appointments. The amount of boring, annoyance and vexation inflicted on Senators and Members is terrible. At the Capitol, on the streets, in the hotels, and in their private apartments, they are besieged by importunate place hunters from early morn till they go to bed at night.

NEW OFFICERS OF THE SENATE.

The Republican Senators met in caucus last Monday and nominated John R. French, formerly of Ohio, and lately a member of Congress from North Carolina, for Sergeant-at-arms; A. M. Clapp, of Buffalo, N. Y., for Congressional Printer, and J. M. Morris, of Connecticut, now proprietor of a Republican paper at Charleston, S. C., for Executive Clerk; Maj. Wm. J. McDonald, Chief Clerk, and Isaac Bassett, Doorkeeper, will retain their positions, having been nominated for re-election; and Secretary Gorham will retain his position as first officer of the Senate, without opposition. The election takes place next Monday.

LIGHTHOUSES ON THE COAST OF OREGON.

Last Wednesday, Judge Williams called up a joint resolution in regard to lighthouses on the coast of Oregon, which he introduced on the 11th inst., and it passed the Senate. It provides that the erection of the lighthouse at Yaquina Bay, and of other lighthouses on the coast of Oregon, for which appropriations have been or may be made, shall not be delayed for want of the consent of the Legislature of the State to the purchase of the site or sites for such lighthouses.

THE BILL TO STRENGTHEN THE PUBLIC CREDIT.

This bill, which was defeated by the pocket veto of Andrew Johnson, again passed the House last week. The second section, to legalize gold contracts, was stricken out on the ground that such contracts are now legal under the recent decision of the Supreme Court. On Monday the bill passed the Senate, as it came from the House, by a vote of 42 to 13. It was signed by President Grant on Thursday, the 18th, being the first act to receive his signature. The act pledges the payment of the United States bonds and legal tender notes in coin.

POST ROADS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

An act was passed and approved on the 3d inst establishing the following post roads. In Idaho—From Boise City, via Middletown, Keeney's Ferry, El Dorado and Clarksville, to Baker City, Oregon. From Maggie Creek, in Nevada, via Silver City, to Boise City. From Lewiston to Elk City. From Placerville, via Warren's Camp, to Florence. From Spokane Bridge to Lewiston. From Florence to Washington. From Silver City to Oro. From Walla Walla, in Washington Territory, via Lewiston, in Idaho, to Helena, Montana. From Florence to Warren's Diggings. From Rocky Bar to Atlanta. From Boise City, via Leesburg, Salmon City, to Bannock City, Montana. In Washington Territory—From Vancouver, via Fourth Plain, Sackamas, and Fern Prairie, to Washugal. From Steilacoom to Tacoma. In Oregon—From Roseburg to Randolph. From Lewisville, via King's Valley, Blodgett's Valley and Yaquina Bay, to Elk City. From Elk City, via Phumoath and Corvallis to Lewisville. From Albany, via Leanon, Sweet Home Valley, Camp Polk, Crooked River, Ochoco Valley, to Mountain House. From Dallas, via Salt Creek and Hall's, to Grand Ronde, in Washington Territory.

APPOINTMENTS—PERSONAL MATTERS.

Postmaster General Cresswell yesterday appointed J. B. Underwood, Esq., Postal Agent for Oregon, Washington, and Idaho. Mr. Underwood is eminently qualified for the office, and I feel confident that he will discharge its duties in a manner which will be creditable to the Post Office Department, advantageous to the people, and entirely satisfactory to the Union Republican party of Oregon. He gave a dinner party to his friends yesterday evening at Harvey's on Pennsylvania Avenue. Among those present I noticed Messrs. Meacham, Bowlby, Olney, Dowell, Pengra, Henderson, Simpson, McBride, Judge Cummins, Mitchell, Lyon, Thompson, Weldy and Williamson. Mr. Underwood and family leave here to-night or to-morrow for New York, from whence they will proceed to Oregon, overland, via Boise City.

To-day William Kapus, of Portland, was appointed Collector of Customs at Sitka, Alaska, and Fred Wilson, Collector of Customs at Port Townsend, Washington Territory. A. S. Patterson will be appointed Postmaster at Eugene City. Messrs. Simpson and Bowlby will leave here this evening for Oregon, overland, stopping a few days in New York. K.

STATE ITEMS.

The citizens of Wilbur, Douglas county, will celebrate the Fourth of July. Hon. O. Jacobs will deliver the oration. Early preparation.

The Commissioners of Douglas county advertise that they will receive proposals to erect a Court House. Such a building is much needed in that county.

A tug will be placed by Messrs. Simpson at the mouth of the Umpqua river to facilitate commerce. The lumber and other interests of the river demand it.

There will be a plowing match at the Linn county Fair grounds on Saturday, April 24th, at 2 o'clock, P. M. Premiums will be given by the Association. First premium, $10; second, $5. Competitors from other counties are invited.

The Roseburg paper mentions the following remarkable coincidence. We learn that the body of Zephaniah H. Brown, drowned on the 3d ult. in the Umpqua river, was found on the 20th, floating near the wharf at Gardner. He was buried near Scottsburg on the following day, at the same hour that his friends and relatives were attending the funeral services at Oakland, forty miles distant, though the friends knew not that the body had been found.

A correspondent writes from North Yamhill, April 5th: "A man calling himself L. Jay S. Turney was arrested on complaint of G. W. Bennett, for embezzling $40 legal tenders. The charge was fully and clearly proven, and he was bound over in the sum of $500. I understand this man has gone to Washington in quest of an appointment, and believing as I do, that everybody should know what manner of man he is, particularly our U. S. Senators, I send you this in the hope that you will notice it, and thus put all whom it may concern, on their guard that they may not be deceived, nor imposed upon."

THE EAST.

North Carolina has ratified the suffrage amendment.

Robert M. Douglas, son of the late Senator Douglas, has been appointed assistant private secretary to President Grant.

Col. Samuel Pike, the Sergeant-at-Arms of the Ohio House of Representatives, has been connected with 27 different newspapers.

A lady, in Lowell, Massachusetts, who has kept crape on the knob of her house door since the assassination of President Lincoln, removed it on inauguration day.

The President receives members of Congress from ten to twelve o'clock, daily, and general visitors daily from three to four o'clock, except on Tuesdays and Fridays, Cabinet days.

The Democrats in the Ohio Legislature have a scheme for redistricting the State, so as to wipe out the Republicans so far as possible and give the opposition to at least eleven of the nineteen Congressmen.

A disposition has been developed at Washington to run General Hancock as the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, this year, with the view, in case he shall be successful, of making him the candidate for President in 1872.

The Louisiana sugar-growers are prosperous, and decline to ask for any increase in the present duties on that article. Hence there is little probability that Congress will make such a change, to please the refiners of Philadelphia and New York.

By special orders, from the War Department, the enlisted men of companies I and K, 44th U. S. Infantry, (Veteran Reserve Corps,) have been transferred as privates to the general service U. S. Army, to date March 1, 1869. This order will not change their assignment to their present duties.

President Grant, in reply to an application by an Ohio Representative for the appointment of Hon. James M. Ashley, who has the endorsement of the entire Republican delegation, as Governor of Montana, said it was his intention to select the nominees for that and other like positions from the residents of the territories they seek to govern, when proper men can be found.

Mr. Washburne retired from the office of Secretary of State at noon on the 17th March, and Mr. Fish took possession. It may be noted as an instance of reciprocity, that the last official act of Mr. Washburne was to countersign the commission of Mr. Fish as Secretary of State, and the first official act of Mr. Fish as Secretary of State was to countersign the commission of Mr. Washburne as Minister to France.

Among the nominations sent to the Senate on the 17th ult. by the President was that of Mrs. Van Low to be Postmistress at Richmond, Va. This appointment was made in consideration of the services rendered by Mrs. Van Low during the rebellion, she having sacrificed all of her property and sent her slaves through the lines with valuable information for General Grant while he was in command of the Army of the Potomac.

Officers of the Navy have been directed, by a general order just issued from the Navy Department, to inform the Secretary of the Navy of their actual places of residence. The object is to ascertain where they live, so that they may be assigned to duty at points nearest their places of residence, not only as a convenience to themselves, but also to save the Government their traveling expenses when ordered to distant points instead of those near home.

Says the Missouri Democrat: Four years ago last Thursday, a prominent official at Washington plunged the entire diplomatic corps into a profound study by asking them in the Senate Chamber this memorable conundrum: "Whish Seo'tara Nava? Arry borry give 'em name of Seo'tara Nava?" And they had to give it up.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Washington News.

CHICAGO, April 7.—The Tribune's special says that the Senate Committee on Foreign Relations has agreed to report favorably on the Darien ship canal, and the Sandwich Island treaty. Probably these as well as the Alabama treaty, will go over to the extra Executive session.

Important information was received to-day concerning the movement of English capitalists to offset the influence of the Pacific railroad upon lines of trade from Asia. An influential London company has the right of way across Honduras and designs constructing a railroad with lines of English steamers on both the Atlantic and Pacific, by which it is hoped they will be able to compete with our Pacific railroads in carrying the heavy commodities.

The Mexican Congress meets on Thursday. A stormy time is expected. An effort will probably be made to overthrow the concession to the English Company for building the Mexico and Vera Cruz railroad, and to organize a new company with American capital, to take charge of the road.

NEW YORK, April 7.—It is intimated that the most important documents connected with the Union Pacific railroad matters are in Boston.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—Madame Olga Von Plittersdorff, a German actress of considerable note, committed suicide last evening at half past six o'clock by taking hydrocianic acid at the residence of Henry Morel. This is the third attempt at self-destruction since the death of her husband, which occurred seven weeks ago.

Three policemen attempted last night to arrest a woman called Indian Kate, for disorderly conduct. Special officer Dunn was assisting them, when she caught his thumb in her mouth and held on till choked to insensibility. Dunn's thumb will be amputated. Kate was arrested on the charge of mayhem.

A charge of murder was entered to day against Geo. Lowery and J. A. Dunn. They are supposed to be concerned in the death of a man named Rivers, who was found insensible on Bartlett street in a saloon a few mornings since, and afterwards died in the hospital.

Mining stocks are weak and panicky to day. The fire in Crown Point and Kentuck affected the whole list.

NEVADA.

Further Particulars of the Terrible Catastrophe at Gold Hill.

VIRGINIA, April 7.—Thirteen dead bodies have been recovered from the Gold Hill fire. Beyond doubt, at least forty men have perished. The condition of the fire is more favorable. A stream of water has been brought to bear upon it in the 800 foot level, and hopes are felt that something may yet be done to extinguish it. Other streams are being arranged. The opinion gains ground that the mines will not be permanently injured.

VIRGINIA, April 7—8 P. M.—There is nothing to take from the horrors of this morning's calamity at Gold Hill. It is the most heart rending affair that ever disturbed the community and weighs down the hearts of the stoutest.

The Gold Hill News gives the names of the missing at Crown Point mine: Michael McCormick, Peter Blouin, Patrick Buckley, James Bickell, George Edmonds, A. G. Grant, Edward Jewell, William Jewell, Jonathan Jones, Thomas Laity, William Mitchell, Joseph Matthews, Archie McDonnell, Thomas McCullin, Thomas McCoy, Daniel O'Neil, John O'Brien, James Peters, A. Remy, K. Ryan, George Tompkins, John Rowan, Thomas Foland.

The following are the names of the four still missing in the Kentuck mine: Patrick Hogan, Martin Clooney, Harry Stevens and Joseph Glascer.

In the Yellow Jacket mine Jeremiah Spanel is still missing.

Add to the twenty-eight missing the names of those brought up, which are John Hogan, Joseph McLellan, Richard Bickell, Anthony Foy, George Bickell and Patrick Quinn, who is alive but in a very critical condition, and the total loss of lives will be 33 or 34.

Among the terrible incidents of the fire we copy from the News, three brothers named Richard, George and James Bickell, aged respectively 33, 41 and 27, were working in the Crown Point mine not long after the fire was discovered and the deadly smoke was pouring out through the Crown Point shaft. Richard and George groped their way to the cage and rang the bell to come up. When they arrived at the surface George was discovered insensible, leaning over his brother and holding him as with a death grip, which it was quite difficult to disengage. Richard had his head torn almost completely off and his left arm was hanging by a little strip of skin to the shoulder. He had doubtless become insensible, and sinking down upon the cage was dragged against the shaft timber at the sides. George still lives, but is insensible and suffering from asphyxia, produced by the inhalation of the terrible smoke so foully charged with deadly carbonic acid gas.

It was known there was a number of miners in the Crown Point, 1,000 feet below the level, and at 11 A. M. a cage was sent down with a light lantern on it and a small box with candles, and the following dispatch written on a large piece of pasteboard, by the superintendent, J. P. Jones: "We are fast subduing the fire. It is death to attempt to come up from where you are. We will get to you soon. The gas in the shaft is terrible and produces sure and speedy death. Write a word to us and send it up on the cage and let us know how you are."

The cage returned to the surface without any reply, rendering it quite certain that all have perished. Many of the miners leave families at Gold Hill, and they have passed the day in an utterable anguish, hurrying from shaft to shaft, giving vent to their agony in wailings that brought tears to the eyes of hundreds unused to weeping. The origin of the fire is not positively known, but all believe it originated from a miner's candle left sticking in the drift timbers. Several streams of water are now running down the shafts, but what effect is being produced on the fire is impossible to learn. Neither can any thing positive be ascertained of the damage done to the mines. Everything possible is being done. A hopeful feeling exists of subduing the flames.

How a New York Printer Lives.

The following curious letter appears in the w York Sun:

To the Editor of the Sun—Sir: I am a workman, a printer; and I beg through your lumns, to correct some errors into which arly all workingmen have fallen in rd to the cost of living at the present time. First—In regard to rent. I pay $15 month- for four rooms, with suitable pantries, quite uple for myself, wife and three children—e eldest is a daughter, employed as a teach- in one of the public schools. I live in a st class new house, occupied, I believe, by x other families, each having the same ac- mmodation. Ten years ago I paid $16 50 r month for inferior apartments. In other ords, rents have not appreciated to the ex- nt that wages have.

Second—I earn $18 weekly at my trade, ex- usive of extra work—in round numbers say 72 per month. After paying rent, I have 57 remaining. I allow my wife $1 per diem r household expenses, not including wood coal. This leaves me $27 for clothing, or ich other purp as I may deem necessary, r $324 per year.

Third—It may be asked, how can a family live on $1 per day? Easy. I buy the est of everything. Flour is no dearer than n years ago; nor is meat or coal. I bought ree barrels of potatoes two months ago at 2 25, and they can be bought to-day at the me price. These will last me until April. utter is dear, but we use it sparingly, making p for it with soups, gravies and syrup. A ound of coffee at forty cents makes seventy- wo cups of strong (not boarding-house or estaurant stuff) beverage, or a little over half cent a cup; with milk and sugar, say one ent per cup. I can buy the best of mutton t 15 cents per pound; beef from 20 to 25; ams from 18 to 20; all quite as cheap as ten ears ago. We live well, and occasionally ntertain my friends, out of this per diem $1) allo— me. Besid on New Year's my rife pres ted me with a new overc (a sur- rise,) for which she paid $20, and that, too, out of her wages.

Fourth—Workingm do not be deluded nto buying a suburban lot, for there are ex- enses of travel, taxes, A cents, and what ot that will ruin you. The city is cheaper and better, if you are employed here. I've tried it to my cost. Lo ly, weak for whom you p for, for what hours you pl , and at w you please. I elk no man or body of men to ma or me. I am the best j of m

THE SCHOOL MEETING.—The local editor of the Herald is afflicted at the result of the school meeting held in this city Monday evening. In the course of a somewhat prolonged and dolorous wail, he says: "The Radical Republicans made a political issue of the school election." This would be a fact, if it were true. It would have troubled any man not enough elevated to see double, to count more than fifty Democrats at the meeting included among those who wanted to be elected to the handling of the school money; and yet, of the two hundred and fifty-six votes cast for Directors, Mr. Dennison received over one hundred. We know, and could name a large number of "Radical Republicans" who voted for that gentleman, because they preferred him personally to the others. We could also mention a large number of "Radical Republicans" who voted for Judge McCoy for clerk. That a majority preferred somebody else, however, is very far from being conclusive that the election was a parties affair. The Herald complains that the Radical Republicans drummed up their "cohorts" for the occasion. We cannot say whether any "drumming" was done, but if there was, we fail to see anything in the fact more objectionable than took place last year, when the Democrats, flushed with vile beer and their late victories in the city, openly boasted that would also "clean out the blacks" from the schools and the school management, and when they did drum up from some of the vilest haunts in the city numbers of men who were not voters in either this district, city or State, and did vote them a ticket, undiluted and undisguised Democratic ticket for Director and Clerk, there was then a great jubilee among Democrats over the "victory" they had achieved. The proceedings at the meeting of last year were disgusting to the city—so admitted by scores of the most decent sort of Democrats. The taxpayers and the great body of school patrons who had been and were then careless about attending school meetings, felt that they were outraged by the gathering of such a rabble, and they then determined that it should not be repeated, if their personal attendance could avert it. The result is seen in the fact that the last school meeting, Monday evening, ever held in this district; and it was also a very notable feature of the meeting that the voters were the representatives only of the very best classes of our population—very signally in contrast with the meeting of last year. If the great majority of them were Republicans, it proves only that when our public school interests are at stake, the "Radical Republicans" turn out best, thus manifesting a deeper solicitude not only for the welfare of the schools, but for the respectable character of our school meetings.

The charge that Mr. Wadhams does not pay any other than a road tax, comes with a poor grace from the party which last year elected to the most responsible office in the district, a man who, as we are informed, pays no tax other than a road tax, and we venture that if our afflicted party will examine into the matter he will find that he has elected by larger other than road tax. We have other that Judge Deady construed the law that persons voted for were eligible only, in substance, that the Chairman of the election had the law said it was only necessary for him to [illegible]. We hope our weeping friend will be comforted, for a very large majority of the largest school meeting ever held in this city seem to be exceedingly well satisfied with the officers chosen. Let's not boo-hoo any more about it; reflect, that "all's well that ends well."

PERRY CREEK MINES.—We are allowed to make the following extract, says the Walla Walla Statesman, from a letter written to a resident of this city from the new mining camp on Perry Creek, dated February 25th, but which has inadvertently omitted to publish it in our last issue: "Our boys have been in high glee of late over some fine dirt obtained from five different claims, below the Forks. Eighteen buckets of clay dirt from the Half-Breed claim panned out $14; the other claims prospected equally as well as the rest. This was considered good when you take into consideration the fact that the prospecting was done when everything was closed tight with ice. Up to this time, no one knows what the dirt is below the clay, or what the bed rock will pay, but all are satisfied so far. This will be a good camp, and afford employment for a large number of good miners. It is now considered that good prospects have been obtained [illegible] on the right hand fork of this creek, and if they are found, will nearly double the size of our new mining camp. We were also shown a letter dated February [illegible] in Cañon City, Montana, which stated that a party had just returned from Perry Creek, confirming the reports of the richness of those new mines, and in consequence of which over one hundred men were preparing to go for the new camp early in April.

[illegible].—The Unionist of yesterday says: Governor Wade has appointed F. J. Thibault, of San Francisco, and Judson Jarvis, of New York City, [illegible] of Deeds for Oregon.....The case of the State was called yesterday afternoon. The [illegible] Simpson & Thompson. The attorneys for the State are the Hon. District Attorney [illegible] are Williams & Willis, and Thayer and [illegible]. The jury was empanneled.....The Hesperkin [illegible] Wallace's University will hold its annual [illegible] in the chapel of the University building tomorrow [illegible]. The society have heretofore held their [illegible] exhibitions at the close of the school year in July, but they have chosen it to the end of the second week in April.....[illegible] says: The renting of pews in the First Church took place on Tuesday evening last, and ranged from $20 to $25.....Old physicians say they have never before known the measles to prevail [illegible] as they are in Salem.....Mr. Jos. Hoyt will start East in a few weeks for the purpose of purchasing [illegible] machinery, for the Salem flax manufactory. The cost of which will probably be between $12,000 and $15,000.

RECORD FOR MARCH.—Mr. Thos. Pearce has [illegible] in his weather record for March, says the Unionist, that in the month there were 12 clear days, the 1st, 2d, 3d, 10th, 11th, 12th, 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 20th, 28d, and 31st. There were 14 rainy days, the 4th, 17th, 18th, 19th, 21st, 25th to the 30th inclusive. There were eight cloudy days on which no rain fell, from the 5th to the 7th inclusive, 16th with north wind in the forenoon, 23d, and 24th. The wind blew from the north 12 days and from the south 12 days. Two days the sea was called, viz: the 2d and 21st. The highest temperature was 57°, the lowest was 38°. The mean temperature for the month was 47°. In his remarks accompanying the report Mr. Pearce says: "While the course of rain in the Willamette valley is usually from the south, still it does sometimes vary from those points. You will see that during two days, viz: on the 16th and 28th, it was from the S. W. A month of beautiful weather, yet many old Oregonians are looking for a wet season. I don't think they deserve to find it."

THE TERRITORIES.—The Walla Walla Statesman of the 20th says: "Hon. Alvan Flanders, writing to J. D. Boyer, Walla Walla, says: 'I suppose you know that the Walla Walla railroad bill passed both Houses of Congress and was signed by the President.' This is good news for our people, and gives assurance that with ample time we shall have an outlet for our surplus products.....We learn that the new Court House, at Pendleton, in Umatilla county, is very nearly completed. The building is 30x40 feet and is finished in the best manner. The first floor is fitted up for offices for the County Clerk, etc. The second story is thirteen feet in the clear, and is to be used as a court room. When finished it will be the finest court room east of the Cascades, and is in every way creditable to the enterprise of the people of Umatilla county.

THE TRADE IN PROSPECTS.—The hair of the Victoria is coming on end, and the breath is clean out of its body by a rumor circulating in that city to the effect that the Bright doctrine on colonial policy is in the ascendant in the Gladstone Cabinet, and that Lord Granville is at this moment treating with the United States Government for a complete settlement of all matters upon the basis of surrendering San Juan, and [illegible] Island over with it to the United States. The Colonist says: There are other details not so clearly known, but it is understood that the American Government is to have the option of giving Alaska to boot, or paying an equivalent in cash.

PUGET SOUND.—Mr. Bossel informs the Unionist that when he left the bay, a day or two since, the steamer Sir Simpson was hourly expected from San Francisco. She has been purchased by Winant & Co., and will make regular trips between the bay and San Francisco. Bensell & Co will load the vessel with lumber for the San Francisco market, and her owners will return with merchandise and ship-building stores. Mr. Winant & Co. will engage in ship-building quite extensively, if they meet with encouragement. They intend building a vessel of two hundred tons burthen this season. The material is now on the Simpson which is to be used.

[illegible].—Mr. Morris, City Surveyor, informs us that he has frequently, of late, been put to trouble and extra expense by the removal of flagstaffs and other property in use in his public work. On one or two occasions he has planted a flagstaff for the purpose of determining a line, and upon reaching a distant part of the street and sighting back, he has discovered that the staff had been carried away. This, of course, stops all work until a new one can be procured and set up—a result not only annoying, but expensive to the city. It is probable that boys are the offenders, but whoever they are, if detected, they will find themselves in trouble.

A DISTRESSING ERROR.—Some time since we copied from the Advocate an item stating that a Miss Turner, of Washington county, had become insane. We learned yesterday that the statement was incorrect; and that at the time mentioned, she was attacked with brain fever, which rendered her delirious—a natural and frequent effect of that disease. She has since died, having never recovered from the attack though she was much of the time during her illness perfectly rational. We regret, deeply, that we contributed, though unknowingly and unintentionally, to the circulation of a statement so distressing to the family of the deceased.

SPRING STYLES.—The Spring styles of silk fur, soft, and straw hats are now opened in great variety at Mousdoffer's Hat Emporium, and ready for examination and sale. Mr. Mousdoffer went to San Francisco and made the selections himself and we must say that he has exhibited unusually good taste. His stock is now so large and varied that no man can fail to find something to suit him. Every man knows the value of being in the prevailing style; every man should, therefore, go to Mousdoffer's and buy a hat of the latest fashion.

FOR PUGET SOUND.—Several men arrived here from Salem, Monday evening, en route to Puget Sound, in quest of the railroad terminus. Just at present this sort of thing strikes us as being like the attempt which children all make to find the end of a rainbow under the belief that if they can only locate the phantasy thing they will discover a pot of gold.

RUNAWAY—MAN HURT.—Yesterday a mule team attached to a scavenger wagon, ran away on Alder street, throwing the driver, a negro, off the seat to the ground, and damaging his face severely.

ON FISH-AL.—J. Quinn, of the Union Fish Market, Washington street, has received a supply of fresh Chinook Salmon. See his advertisement.

DEATH OF AN OLD CITIZEN.—We learn with regret that Capt R. B. Caldwell, formerly a highly respected citizen of Portland, died at Providence, Rhode Island on the 1st inst of March. He was a brother of our City Auditor W. S. Caldwell. Very few who ever knew him in life but will feel more than a passing pang to hear that he has gone forever from us.

GOOD FOR BEN.—The people of East Portland have evidently concerned a very high opinion of Ben Hollister, since he has recently purchased some of their real estate. At the school meeting, Monday evening, he was nominated for a local clerk and received several votes though not enough to elect him to that high and responsible office.

PASSENGERS FOR VICTORIA.—The steamer Telegraph took the following named passengers, last evening, for Victoria: John Robinson, G. P. Hudlong and wife, P. P. Rubank, Mrs M. A. Brem, N. Ring, Wm. Mosely, H. C. Breckere and son, W. H. Baker, J. Tuttle and J. Fouts.

CONCERT.—That one announced on Monday last for the proceeds to go to the benefit of a charitable character. Had opened to meet at one o'clock this afternoon.

FOR WRANGEL.—The steamer Ranger will resume her regular trips to Wrangel on the 1st starting at eight A. M.

SAILED.—The steamship Sonora, Thomas Shelton commander, sailed at one o'clock last evening for Victoria.

FOR VICTORIA.—The [illegible] sailed for Victoria at one o'clock this afternoon.

The Philadelphia Press quotes Andy Johnson in 1865 and 1869 in parallel columns. In the former year he promised to make treason odious. In the latter year he had fully succeeded.

ATTENTION.—Emmet Guards, you will meet at your armory this evening, at 7½ o'clock, where business of importance will be transacted. A punctual attendance is requested. Per order of

M. V. CARELL, 1st Lieut.
CHAS. DILLON, Financial Secretary.

THE WHITE PARISH FESTIVAL.—The Ladies of Trinity Parish propose to hold a Festival at the vestry room, corner of Second and Oak street, on Wednesday evening next, April 7th. The public are respectfully invited to attend. Admission 25 cents.

Late News Brevities.

The retirement of Mr. Wade from public life leaves Mr. Sumner the "Father of the Senate."

Weston has accepted the challenge of Payne of Albany, N. Y., to walk from Erie to Buffalo for $800.

Charles Dickens is among the distinguished foreign authors on whom the King of Prussia recently conferred the Order of the Red Eagle.

At Peoria, Illinois, the convention of grape growers sat down to a repast which was washed down with native wine furnished from 225 samples.

The principal stockholder in the very profitable Independance Belge is a marriageable maiden of 17, who also owns an estate worth over 1,000,000 francs.

Don Piatt says that Andrew Johnson has grown fearfully like his picture by Nast. The expression of mulish conceit comes out with striking distinctness.

George Francis Train sold lately in Omaha, 16 lots for $12,000, and still owns 5000 just like them which are now worth $4,000,000, and are rapidly rising in value.

Colorado newspapers are now published on paper of four colors, owing to the transportation on the Union Pacific Railroad. The Central Herald prints on a bright green; the Transcript on dirt color which feels as though made from sand; the Times on manilla, and the rest are still fortunate to have white.

John A. Keith, formerly in the Confederate army, now in jail at Raleigh, N. C., is described by The London (N. C.) Press as "the monster of the Nineteenth Century." He once shot 13 men, women and children, after securing them as prisoners. Many similar outrages in the Cumberland district are also laid to his charge.

THE WEST.

Smelting furnaces will be built this summer at Denver, Colorado, to reduce iron ore.

Green Clay Smith says, positively, that he will return and open a law office in Montana.

About three weeks ago four men herding cattle on the Yellowstone were murdered by the Indians.

Walla Walla has 11,000 in greenbacks on hand to be applied to paying the indebtedness of that county.

In the vicinity of Boise City the hunters not only find plenty of ducks and geese, but rabbits and lynx.

On the 15th March about $17,000 was cleaned up from the Park lode, near Helena—the product of 15 days milling.

The placers at Florence City are not yet worked out. There is plenty of ground yet that will pay from $6 to $8 per day to the hand.

Two Indians, one a Flathead and the other a Spokan, fought a duel near Helena a short time ago. Cause, woman. Both combatants killed.

The Idaho Statesman says that labor is wanted at Alturas and other points in that Territory. Some of the quartz mills cannot run for want of hands.

At the Olympia Land Office the total amounts entered under the different acts of Congress during the month of March, 1869, making 25,214 74 100 acres.

The Republicans in Washington Territory are in a general row about a delegate to Congress, and are evidently preparing to let a Democrat carry off the prize.

The Montana Post of March 19th reports a severe fight between a company of soldiers and a party of Sioux Indians in Gallatin valley. Four Indians were killed.

Says the Boise Statesman: The Democratic organ around the corner has not announced a change of proprietors for the last three days. It is in the meantime amusing its readers with an inside view of the concern.

In Sonoma county, California, many farmers are setting out almond, walnut and mulberry trees; and hops are attracting attention in that county, and also in Napa. Several of the hop fields north of San Pablo bay have been very profitable.

A Montana paper reports that the agricultural products of Montana this year promise to be immense. In all the great agricultural districts—Gallatin, Madison, Prickly Pear, Boulder, Hell Gate, Deer Lodge, Bitter Root, and other valleys—the most extensive preparations are being made.

The Virginia and Truckee Railroad Co., says the Virginia City Enterprise, have received a telegram from Liverpool, England, informing them that iron for their road had been shipped at that point for San Francisco. A large number of men are now at work on the road, and by the time the iron arrives the greater portion of the grading will be done.

Says the Olympia Transcript: "There is hardly a day passes but we see men coming into town on foot, carrying their blankets, in search of work or hunting homes. So far as we are able to learn, the logging camps and mills are almost all short of hands, yet we fear there is danger of too great a rush, which will have a tendency to discourage settlements.

A correspondent of the Walla Walla paper writing from Florence, says: The mill of the Florence Company has been in full blast ever since last December, and has been running since then without a single interruption, day and night. They have fine looking rock, which averages $100 per ton, and a well defined lodge. Their shaft is seventy-two feet deep, and the vein widens as they proceed in depth. They employ 16 men.

Says the Montana News Letter of the 21st March: One day last week, a band of Blood Indians made an attack on a saw mill on Benton Creek, 18 or 20 miles northeast of Diamond City—their object undoubtedly being to burn the mill, massacre the whites in the vicinity, and get away with all the stock. They were repulsed by the employees, but succeeded in driving off some cattle. O. J. Julian, thou man of Peace and Quaker Indian Commissioner, come hither.

DELICIOUSLY MEDICINAL.—This is the universal verdict pronounced upon PLANTATION BITTERS by all who have tried them. The well known health-giving ingredients from which they are made, and their unrivalled merits as a remedy for indigestion and all its consequent ailments, and the preventive they offer against diseases arising from climatic changes, constitute them the most [illegible] and [illegible] known and no honest person can read that we print below will forego the advantages they offer us.

DANCING ACADEMY.—Prof. Carl Heller issues and held every week day evening at his [illegible] for children. Hall in Popplewell's building, First street.

WALTHAM WATCHES.

The extensive use of these watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Express men thoroughly establishes their unrivalled reputation for strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. It scarcely requires that these remarks be made in regard to the great merits and the real value of these timekeepers.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham enable them to produce watches, COMBINING THE BEST AND LATEST IMPROVEMENTS, and at a price which renders competition futile, and it is one who buys any other watch, merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent more for their watches than is necessary.

NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!

W. E. COOPER

HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent, and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive

Carriage Factory,

Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.

He respectfully refers to the following

CARD.

Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H. B. Hoag and, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.

It fastens without bolt or screw, and is therefore easily and speedily separated. It renders Gutta Percha rings to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs rest to horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant and a convenient, safe and strong

It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 7, 1869.

he Sense of Smell and the Suffrage Amendment.

A Democratic paper presents the following, evidently supposing that it has thereby annihilated the proposed fifteenth or suffrage amendment.

Observations and reason teach that the blacks are of a different race—that they are inferior to the white—that they are embued with repugnant properties, which forbids social intercourse—that they will never be treated by the whites as equals—that laws separating them from the whites are impressed by the Creator upon their mental and physical constitutions, and that to overlook these laws, and obstinately violate them, must necessarily bring their penalties upon the white race—degradation, civil commotions and all the evils growing out of wanton breaches of palpable divine ordinances.

This, from the Democratic stand-point, doubtless seems very profound and conclusive, but it so happens that many people do not occupy that stand-point, and therefore they look at the whole subject in a very different light.

If it follows necessarily from the superiority of the white race over the colored race that the latter, though helping to maintain the government, are entitled to no rights in it, it follows just as inevitably that those whites who fall below the average of their fellows should be disfranchised. Indeed on this principle only the superior few among the whites are entitled to exercise political authority. Thus it is but one step from the Democratic position to monarchism.

The argument that the blacks are "endowed with repugnant properties" which make it extremely disagreeable for whites to come in contact with them, is somewhat at variance with the undeniable fact that in the days of slavery, all over the Southern States, the whites and blacks were brought into the closest contact. The houses of opulent whites were constantly filled with blacks, not upon compulsion, but from choice. So long as the blacks were near the whites as servants, no offensive odor was perceived to exhale from them. It was only when the right of freedom was [illegible] for them that the unwholesome smell was said to be smitten. We believe the most fastidious Democrat does not even now reluctate at employing a black driver or body servant. And there are Democrats who do not object to going into a gambling den and sitting all night long in a putrid atmosphere at play with a mixed crowd of negroes, Chinese and half-breeds. Yet it would be very unpleasant to these Democrats for an honest, decent colored man to vote at the same poll with them. They do not revolt at the intimate social intercourse which we have described; but the "smell of the nigger" makes them sick the moment it is proposed to allow him to vote.

By consulting the census returns it will be found that there are many thousands of mulattoes in the Southern States. Consulting the election returns from those States, it will also be found that the number of Democratic voters in each has corresponded almost exactly with the number of half-breeds. Now we do not affirm that there is any connection between these two facts. We simply affirm that it is singular, if not significant. Moreover, the Republicans can prove an alibi. In that [illegible] they were not in the Southern States, even as carpet-baggers. The Democrats had all the power, political and social, in their own hands. We venture to submit, then, that this extensive commingling of colors did not occur without much "social intercourse," and that the Democracy have not been very fastidious on this point heretofore. From all these facts it would seem that there is a very marked discrepancy between the Democratic theory of unwholesome odor, as an argument against the suffrage amendment, and Democratic practices in regard to intercourse with the "inferior race." A wholesale mingling of the races, which causes the mulatto to [illegible] so largely in the census returns, is, we take it, a far greater infringement upon the moral law than the admission of colored men to the elective franchise.

A Collapse.

On Monday evening at the school meeting the gentlemen present were favored with a speech by Mr. Alderman Hallock, delivered in that gentleman's most finished style of oratory. Being somewhat more "mellow" than usual, the honorable Alderman exhibited his shining head, beaming face and rotund abdominal proportions with even more advantage than is his wont; and the strains of his eloquence corresponded most happily with his physical conditions,—or, to put it more accurately, with his feed and drink. He stood up to argue in favor of that most odious and un-Democratic doctrine of property qualification for voters. He was not content with the simple declaration of the law that any person over twenty-one years of age who had paid other tax than road tax should be entitled to vote in the school meeting; he wanted all excluded who had not paid road tax, poll tax and property tax besides. And to sustain this position he spoke at some length, pretending to quote the law on the subject, and proceeding in such strains as he supposed would produce an immense sensation. O, those tones! Could they have been heard in a beer-jerkers' saloon in the First Ward, Hallock's fame would have been established forever. But as the audience was composed mainly of plain, intelligent, practical people of the class who take an interest in public schools, the effect was entirely lost. After he had drawn out the thread of his speech much finer than the staple of his argument, and stretched and swelled nearly to bursting in the effort to utter bulky words befitting himself and the occasion, he paused for breath. Then all of a sudden a gentleman present who had witnessed with some disgust the manner in which this bladder had been inflated, pricked it with the remark that the Alderman's speech "would have been very fine were the law as he had stated it, but as the law only required the payment of a tax other than a road tax, the speech was evidently intended for delivery at another time and on another subject." Then it was worth something to see Hallock collapse. The Alderman for the first time in his life was struck with the fact that it is a great deal easier to deliver an elaborate oration on a subject one knows nothing about than on a subject which he may chance to have some acquaintance with. Hallock therefore sank down in his boots as far as he could get for his ears, and nothing more was heard from him at that meeting.

From the Unionist: The whole amount of the State, county and school taxes assessed to Marion county for the year 1868, is $54,498 65. Of this amount the Sheriff has collected up to yesterday, $48,050 28. The amount of taxes remitted by reason of double assessments and other causes, is $2,682 93. The delinquent list which the Sheriff will hand over to the County Court, at its April term, is only $3,759 44, which we consider as doing well.

Small Notes.

Last year Connecticut went Democratic by nearly 2,000 majority. In the election on Monday last the Republicans appear to have carried the State, electing the Legislature and two, perhaps three, Congressmen. They elected but one Congressman in the State two years ago. That Democratic reaction is not a success. Dixon, the renegade Republican Senator, is beaten for Congress. Will the Herald note these evidences of its party's growing strength and vitality.

Some account of the Kansas Pacific Railroad is given in the dispatches to-day. The St Louis Republican in a recent article on this road says. "Mr. Perry, the President, it is understood, has about completed his financial arrangements for the rapid completion of the road from the present terminus at Sheridan, to the city of Denver, the distance between those points being in the neighborhood of two hundred miles. Under the new arrangement, work will be immediately resumed."

That intense rebel paper, the Richmond Enquirer, comprehends the political situation. It says: "It creeps out more and more that Grant intends to be President in the full sense of the term. He will avoid the blunder of Mr. Johnson in breaking with his party. He has no idea of becoming a Democrat. On the contrary he appears to hate Johnson and his political course. President Grant will not desert his party, and it is not to be desired by the South that he should do so. He can only control the public sentiment of the North by respecting his party affiliations and he can, if he has the disposition, do more for the Southern people inside of the Republican party than outside of it. Of course we would smash the Republican party to atoms if we had the power; but they have our head in their mouth, and we think some one acquainted with the animal can get us away from him better than a stranger, who would merely infuriate him."

STATE ITEMS.

The trial of Dr. McAfee began at Salem on Monday.

The Democrat says the name of Frank Dalton has been struck from the roll of attorneys, by the Circuit Court for Linn county. It will be recollected that Dalton was sent to the penitentiary some months ago for forgery; hence the action of the court.

The Guard of Eugene, true to its ghoulish instincts, has a article in laudation of the assassin Booth. It says that while President Lincoln has been "covered up in his native earth somewhere out West," with no monument to mark the spot, "Mr. Booth's mortal remains" have been carried with great pomp to Baltimore and interred with honor. And thus adds this delectable sheet "doth the whirligig of time bring around its revenges!"

From the Review: From Mr. S Durbin, who has just returned from San Francisco, we learn that the horses most in demand there at present are driving horses, of good style, bottom, and action, weighing about 1,050 to 1,100 pounds, and draft horses (the heavier the better) say 1,500 to 1,600 pounds. Mr. Durbin thinks there is no encouragement for taking draft horses from 1,000 to 1,200 pounds to that market. The opening of spring is the time of most active demand for draft horses. Although the market is not yet at its best, as he thinks, for pleasure and business horses—he did the best with a matched span of Paul Jones geldings.

"The twenty years that have passed since we were using plows with wooden mold boards seems now but a short time, yet how changed the circumstances to the early settler of the Wallamet! Then he worried through the day, scolding the chafed and sluggish oxen, stopping at short intervals to clean the soil from the wooden plow, doing well when he could show an acre of ground stirred in return for his weary body and tired spirit. Now he may harness his four horses, jump into his spring seat, and see the soil crumble and turn from the glancing steel mold-boards at the rate of four acres per day, and not be so very tired at night." This picture, which we take from the Farmer denotes the wonderful changes which are going on in the processes of farming.

Samuel Rogers, the Last English Maecenas

Harriet Martineau's book of biographical sketches contains the following pen-portrait of this remarkable man, who died Dec. 18, 1855, in his ninety-sixth year. She says:

He was probably the last of that class who will in England be called a Maecenas. His life was a remarkable one from the great age he attained during a critical period of civilization; and his function was a remarkable one—that of representing the bridge over which literature has passed from the old condition of patronage to the new one of independence. He heard "the talk of the town" (recorded by Dr. Adams) on Johnson's letter to Lord Chesterfield; and he lived to see the improvement of the copyright law, the removal of most of the taxes on knowledge, and as vast an increase of the reading public as has rendered the function of patron of authorship obsolete.

PORT, WIT AND BANKER.

The last character he kept out of sight as much as possible. When, some years since, his bank was robbed to so enormous amount by the pillage of a safe that everybody supposed it must stop payment; and when it did not stop, and all his great friends testified their sympathy first, and then their joy, it was a curious thing to observe the old poet's bearing, and to hear the remarks upon it. He was wonderfully reserved, and passed off the whole with a few quiet jokes, through which was plainly seen his mortification at being recognized as a banker, in a sphere where he hoped he was known as an associate of the great, and the first connoisseur in pictures in England.

A LONG LIFE.

Rogers survived all his early friends.

We have seen Moore die in decrepit old age; yet did Moore, in his boyhood (when he was fourteen) delight in Rogers' "Pleasures of Memory," the poem being then so common as to have found its way into schools in class books and collections.

* * * "He heard the first remarks on the 'Vicar of Wakefield,' and read, damp from the press, all the fiction that has appeared since from the Burneys, the Edgeworths, the Scotts, the Dickenses and the Thackerys. As for the poetry, he was aghast at the rapidity with which the Scotts, Byrons and Moores poured out their works; and even Campbell was too quick for him—he, with all his leisure, and being always at it, producing to the amount of two octavo volumes in his whole life.

"His hold on life was very strong. He who was an authority on the incidents of the Hastings trial, and who was in Fox's room when he was dying—he who saw George III. a young man, and was growing into manhood when Johnson went to the Hebrides, survived for several years being run over by a cab of the construction of the middle of the nineteenth century. His poetry could scarcely be said to live so long as himself, as it was rather the illustrations with which it was graced than the verse itself that kept his volumes on sale and within view."

AN UNPLEASANT PATRON.

Rogers helped literary men liberally.

"All honor to him for this! But not the less must the drawbacks be brought into the account. In recording the last of any social phase, it is dishonest to present the bright parts without the shadows; and Rogers' remarkable position was due almost as much to his faults as his virtues. He was, plainly speaking, at once a flatterer and a cynic. It was impossible for those who knew him best to say at any moment whether he was in earnest or corert jest. Whether he ever was in earnest there is no sort of evidence but his acts; and the consequence was that his flattery went for nothing except with novices, while his causticity bit as deep as he intended. He would begin with a series of outrageous compliments, in a measured style which forbade interruption, and, if he was allowed to finish, would go away and boast how much he had made a victim swallow. He would accept a seat at a great man's table, flatter his host to the top of his bent, and then, as is upon record, go away and say that the company there was got up by conscription—that there were two parties before whom everybody must appear, his host and the police."

The Methodists are intending to erect immediately, a first-class Seminary at Olympia.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES

Political News

NEW YORK, April 6. The Hartford dispatch says the Democrats let the election go by default. They have only elected Baldwin and Barnum to Congress, a midnight dispatch. However, leaves the State in doubt, both parties claiming the election.

The Tribune's dispatch from the Chairman of the State Republican Committee, says Jewell and the State ticket are certainly elected. Dixon is defeated by at least 700.

The Times dispatch says Strong leads Dixon 500. Keeling in the Second District beats Beach over 1,000. The Republicans gain 624. Starkweather, Republican, is elected in the Third District by a good majority, and Barnum, Democrat, in the Fourth. The legislature is close. There will be probably be a small Republican majority.

Late dispatches from the Colonial Office to Prince Edward's Island, cautioning the government against reciprocity negotiations, and informing them that they must pay the Governor's salary, have created much dissatisfaction. OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 6.—A terrible accident occurred on Geary street, above Kearney, at half past eight this morning. For some days past men have been at work excavating in a lot adjoining the residence of D L Gautier, a two story brick house, and this morning the east wall gave way, burying Wm Robinson and Jeremiah Carroll in the ruins, and killing them almost instantly. One other man, name unknown, was slightly cut and bruised about the head. The Fire Department was called out and extricated the bodies from the debris. Gautier's family was fortunately out of the building at the time of the accident. The accident was owing to an oversight in not bracing the wall as it was undermined.

Odds and Ends.

Gen. John A Logan has become a member of the Methodist church.

A Florida paper apologizes for shortcomings with the frank explanation. "The publisher is off on a bum."

A contemporary says of an eloquent preacher "During the sermon he paid a high tribute to the character of Christ."

Visitors to the Baden gambling rooms left there $350,000 during the last quarter, the price they paid for being swindled.

The following typographical error shows the vast importance of a comma. At a banquet this toast was given. "Woman—without her man is a brute."

A member of the Indiana Legislature who was examining a collection of works of art with a friend, was overheard to ask his companion if he was a "connoisseur of painting."

At the present time, in Paris, the cafes are open as if it were late Spring, and the visitors to these establishments sit out on the pavements wearing light overcoats. Violets are seen in profusion.

Rather a singular notice appears in one of the New York papers. "The person who stole a hammock from the roof of the building No. 22 Irving place, on Wednesday, can obtain the same by applying at the above number."

A Kansas paper states that a woman out that way, Mrs. Buffmen, is so strongly in favor of her rights, that she closes her prayer, "Awoman," and not Amen. She also prays, "May Thy Queen-dom and kingdom come."

A Connecticut boy, of Danbury, lately undertook the job of drowning a cat by putting it in a paper bag with a stone and throwing it into a pond. The result was that the cat arrived home before the boy did!

The Philadelphia convict with whom Chas. Dickens sympathized so enthusiastically in his "American Notes," is still an incorrigible thief, and is now in the penitentiary. He has been returned three times, and is still known as the "Dickens convict."

When a number of foreigners were recently presented to the Pope at the Vatican, a little American boy, four or five years of age, was introduced with the rest. When the little fellow was led up, the Pope seemed pleased with his bright, intelligent face, and kindly raised his foot higher than usual, so that the boy might more easily kiss the cross upon his toe. The boy, with all Protestant dutiful reverence, put his lips to the cross, but instead of an evidence of favor. He straightened himself up as if the dignity had been compromised, looked full in the eyes of the Pope, and answered flatly "No No, I won't do it." The Americans and English present endeavored to preserve grave countenances, while the Pope smiled good humoredly, and exclaimed, "Americano!"
